

2. English Folk Song

The Old Woman and the Peddler

Preparatory Scale: D Major

Allegretto $\text{♩} = 64$

*There was an old woman, as I've heard tell,
 Fa, la, la la la la!
 She- went to market her eggs to sell,
 Fa, la, la la la la!
 She went to market as I've heard say,
 Fa, la, la la la la!
 She- fell asleep on the King's highway,
 Fa, la, la la la la!*

3. Bohemian Folk Song

November

Preparatory Scale: E Minor (Natural Minor)

Andante ♩ = 48

Gone are the swallows from field and hill;
 Where robins sang all the trees are still;
 Woods are bare everywhere;
 Loud cries the bluejay behind the mill;
 Where the dry dead leaves lie;
 Where robins sang all the trees are still.
